

Reproduction & Permission to Print

Pricing

Pricing is for a high resolution, non-watermarked digital copy for use in a project. The project must be identified with the image request.

Discounts are available for 501c3 non-profit organizations and bulk requests (10+ items).

Research Fee

For research and digitizing of material that's not already scanned: $15/hour

Reproduction

Digital Delivery: Free

DVD & USPS Delivery: $1 per DVD plus shipping cost

Images

Stereo-views: $15

Cabinet cards: $15

Postcards – Lithographic/printed: $5

Postcards – Real photo Kodak (1950-present): $10

Postcards – Real photo: $15

Photographs – Black and white, color, cyanotype: $10

Negatives – Film: $15

Negatives – Glass: $20

Slides: $10

Paper

Advertisements – Brochures, handouts, small posters (8 ½ x 11 or less): $5

Advertisements – Medium-sized posters (11x16 or less): $10 (available Summer 2019)

Advertisements – Broadsides, large format posters: Unavailable

Timetables – Public: $10 (available Summer 2019)

Timetables – Employee: $15 (available Summer 2019)

Tickets: $5

Passes: $10

Letters, billing, and operational documents: $5

Hardware

Uniform – Hat Badges: $10 (available Summer 2019)

Uniform – Buttons: $5 (available Summer 2019)

Tokens: $5

Signs: Unavailable

Copyright

Copyrights of items created on or after January 1, 1923 are held by their respective creators.

Researchers who obtain permission to publish are responsible for securing copyright from the person or organizations that hold copyright. When known, the photographer will be identified in assisting with determining the copyright owner.

Credit

Credit line must be included in any public format. The credit line should identify the photographer (if known) and note "Collection of Matthew D. Cosgro".